1. Definitions

Workspace: the rental of a workspace by a sculptor.

User: the sculptor renting a workspace.

Workshop instructor: the person renting the separate room in order to conduct workshops.

Studio: the term "studio" refers to Studio Antognazzi.

Manager: the term "manager" refers to Mr. Jeen Bosma.

2. Awareness of Risks

The user declares that he/she is fully aware of the specific risks associated with sculpting and working in a professional studio, including but not limited to:

- The use of sharp chisels, pneumatic tools and electric machines (angle grinders).
- The risk of flying stone fragments and marble dust.
- Moving and working with heavy materials (stone/marble).
- The risk of hearing damage caused by noise.

3. Own Risk and Liability

The user participates in all activities within the studio entirely at his/her own risk.

The user hereby declares that neither the studio nor the tenant of the studio shall be held liable for:

- Any personal injury or material damage sustained during the use of the workspace, unless there is demonstrable gross negligence on the part of the studio.
- Damage to personal property (clothing, vehicles, personal belongings).
- Health problems resulting from the incorrect use of the prescribed personal protective equipment.

4. User Confirmation

The user declares that the manager has informed him/her of the following:

- All safety instructions.
- The importance of using personal protective equipment (safety glasses, dust mask, hearing protection and safety shoes).
- The prohibition on operating the overhead crane without the presence and permission of the manager.
- The importance of immediately reporting any unsafe situations or defects in tools or equipment.

5. Health Declaration

The user declares that he/she is in good physical health and has no medical limitations that would prevent the safe handling of stone or machinery.

6. Insurance

The user is advised to have his/her own appropriate personal accident insurance.

The studio declares that it has Public Liability Insurance covering damage caused by defects in the premises or the organisation.

7. Privacy

The user gives permission for the processing of personal data exclusively for administrative and safety purposes within the studio.

8. Applicable Law

Dutch law shall apply to this agreement.
